

Second Announcement
For
IABA Asia-Pacific International Conference 2019

“Life Writing and Asia-Pacific Cultures” the IABA Asia-Pacific International Conference for 2019 will be held from Oct. 25–27 at Shanghai Jiao Tong University. At present, the submission period has ended, and all the submitted abstracts have been reviewed.

With regard to visa applications of international attendees, our conference is waiting for confirmation of approval by the Chinese authorities. The conference dates remain unchanged. Once we receive official approval, the organizing committee will dispatch formal invitations immediately and set up the online payment system. We will extend the deadline for early bird discounts correspondingly.

On behalf of the organization committee, we are grateful for your submissions, and we do apologize for the inconvenience. Please pay attention to our official website for updates (<http://www.sclw.sjtu.edu.cn/IABA2019>). We are looking forward to seeing you in Shanghai this October!
